

INFORMATION FOR CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE

Children or Young People have a right to feel safe when attending functions at IAC and, those who believe they may be at harm, or risk of harm, are encouraged to immediately report this to an IAC Child-Safe Officer, or an adult with whom they feel comfortable.

Unacceptable behaviour at IAC includes, (but is not limited to):

- Hitting/punching.
- Rough physical contact.
- Verbal abuse.
- Bullying.
- Unwanted touching.
- Inappropriate image/filming.
- Grooming.
- Being purposely isolated/rejected by others.
- Victimisation.
- Being exposed to drugs and/or alcohol.

Steps for Children & Young People to follow:

1. Speak to legal Parent/Guardian;
2. Identify an IAC Child-Safe Officer – (Ask your coach or team manager who to contact);
3. Discuss concerns with the Child-Safe Officer;
4. Identify to the Child-Safe Officer the person(s) who are causing concern;
5. Stay away from individuals likely to inflict harm.
6. Always be in sight or easy contact with a responsible adult where you feel unsafe.
7. Assist in provision of information to those reviewing circumstances arising.

NOTE: Children and Young People (or their legal parent/guardian) may choose to access the Kids Help Line should they require assistance or advice. Ph 1800 55 18 00.
